With over 8 years in youth ministry Kabeeria has a unique insight into the spirituality of this generation. Having a range of skills and experience within Kenya and the USA, backed by training to the MDiv level, with a focus in Christian Education.

He has most recently produced Maumbile; A responsible sexuality workbook for African youth.

He is a seasoned minister, educator and student of God's Word.

"Because faith-based content is easily compromised. I rely on my passion and drive to teach and share scripture to present the Gospel of Jesus Christ as the solution to the big questions facing Africa through literature, education and fellowship."
